Sharing the Cultural Resources & Historic Preservation Element from the General Plan. Helpful legal background for the workshop. For the public reading this comment today and in the future, this attachment is ONLY AVAILABLE FOR VIEWING THRU THE CITY CLERK OFFICE. It will NOT BE PART OF THE PUBLIC COMMENT pdf posted online as part of the final, full public comment. Only this introductory statement will be included in the final pdf. This is the city clerk's procedure for any attachments given with any e-comments which I find NOT in the PUBLIC INTEREST and should be corrected.

City Staff Note: The Cultural Resources & Historic Preservation Element can be found on the City's website within the General Plan documents on the Community Development page:
