

Reference Sheets for Segment 1

Red numbers in "Recommended Project" column denote the "Objective Number" in the draft Strategic Plan.

Recommended Project	Recommended Priority	Project Description	Lead Department / Stakeholders	Needed Collaborations	Recommended Funding Strategy	Zoning Information and Limitations (if any)	Reference Documents	Other Matters of Interest
Community of Orange Loop Trail (COLT)  1.1	2	Loop trail that connects 4 regional parks within Orange. Intent is for this to be a trail with horse trails eventually. Not a paved over or cemented sidewalk. Hurdle is bridge over Chapman Ave.	Public Works	County of Orange (owner of regional parks)	Grants	Width of trails could be a constraint		<ul> <li>⊠Ecological Significance</li> <li>☑ Scenic Opportunities</li> <li>☐ Historical/Archeological Significance</li> <li>☑ Recreational Opportunities</li> </ul>
Santiago Creek trail bridge on Cannon St.	2	Extends Santiago Creek trail across Cannon Street so trail can connect. It currently continues but there is no connection point other than 2 busy intersections (Taft/Cannon & Santiago Canyon/Cannon).	Public Works	None	Grants	Maintenance costs and placement of bridge need to be taken into account.		<ul> <li>□ Ecological Significance</li> <li>☑ Scenic Opportunities</li> <li>□ Historical/Archeological Significance</li> <li>☑ Recreational Opportunities</li> </ul>

Recommended Project	Recommended Priority	Project Description	Lead Department / Stakeholders	Needed Collaborations	Recommended Funding Zoning Strategy Informatio and Limitation (if any)		Reference Documents	Other Matters of Interest
General Portola	2	Develop another segment on	•	Orange	Apply for grants	Private	Multiple sources	□Ecological Significance and Fray Juan		the city website next to the		county		property	on Fr Juan Crespi digital		orange barrio site to show			Latinos In Heritage		Crespi.	☐ Scenic Opportunities history		case another important		society,	Conservation (organization),	with showcasing		element in Mexican &	society/ Local		Institute of Museum and	cemetery.	His diaries are	⊠Historical/Archeological travels through		Spanish history within	•	history center,	Library Services,		published	Significance and stay along		Orange	historical	diocese	ALHC grants,		detailing his	- the creek			organizations/	catholic church and	National Park Services		travels through OC.	□Recreational Hispanic Heritage	church and cemetery/	Grants for Latino Heritage		Documented	Opportunities
1.3			Month/ OUSD	•			information via
1.5			World's CCCD	historians/			countless books
				CU/ Latinos In			available to the American			public
				History,			'
				Bowers
				Museum
				(California
				Legacies
				Virtual
				Highlights Tour)

Create a spur	3			City	Same as noted in sector 4	Unknown at	Possible private	□Ecological Significance trail connection		to create a point of merge of	California	Orange		this time	property within this segment of		the trails that belong to the	State	community			the creek	☐ Scenic Opportunities
the creek trails		city creek routes giving the	Horsemen	development,			pathways dedicated			Association,	OC Parks,			unknown about	□Historical/Archeological horses into the		route like trail or rest point.	California	California			(noted by	Significance OPA trails not		No current focus is provided	State Parks,	Trails			markers) or	Olgrinioarios requiring the		by the city for this historic	Orange	Program Non-			current projects	⊠Recreational use of OC		community outside of private	County	motorized,			in play that would parks.		support or county. Also	Parks,	,			be affected in the	Opportunities ensure trail uses abide by the					future of a Orange Municipal Code or					development
1.4		consider the safety of other users by considering complementary uses to be incorporated into the OMC where necessary (e.g., not allowing electric bicycles).
Implementing	2	Installation of markers	National	CA State		Donations,	Possible private	□Ecological Significance
markers on		indicating the pathway of	Parks	Parks,		volunteer	property route of the		these explorers for	Services,	National Park		work,	restrictions due	☐ Scenic Opportunities exploration of		educational purposes, county	Library	Services,		•	to land acquired the creek by		and state history. This would	History				by new	⊠Historical/Archeological Spanish &		fall in the category of the	Center /OC				ownership.	Significance
Mexican		digital documentation located	historical				·	Significance explorers in the		on the National Parks	society/ Local				Installation 1700s		Services website detailing	Hispanic					☐ Recreational some of this information.	historical					Opportunities
1.3			organizations/
		history within the area prior	Hispanic to it being founded as the	Heritage
		City of Orange.	Month/

			OUSD, possibly involve CU, Phil Brigandi's research books
Bike bridge and paths made of natural materials matching surrounding segment 1 area		Build all bridges and pathway similar to Tahoe Pyramid trails. Wood style handrails where needed or barriers. Wood colored or designed bridge or path ways as an example. Vice Chair mentioned "wilderness look" in prior meeting	Orange, OPA, OC habitat preservation organizations	OC Parks, California Park Services, OC water district,	Active Transportation Program for the state of California, People for Bikes Community Grant Program, Recreational Trails Program from the department of parks and recreation, Transportation Development Act – SB821, Wildlife conservation board public access	this time depending on city or county ownership	Research Tahoe Pyramid bike trails and paths	□ Ecological Significance  □ Scenic Opportunities  □ Historical/Archeological Significance  □ Recreational Opportunities
Preserve the chandler site as protected nature locations  1.6	2	Develop a plan while working with state and county agencies to create a protected habitat sector due to the wild life and plant life or organisms that now preside there in that location. Restrict public access from entering these protected sights by monitoring or means of a neighborhood	community development department, city of orange	City of orange community development department, city of orange parks and facilities	Orange county community foundation, California native plant society, The Transportation Corridor Agencies, octa – environmental mitigation program, California state parks,	None noted at this time with city property once grounds are officially acquired by the city of orange	Orange county southern subregion habitat conservation plan (HCP), OCTA community conservation plan/ habitat conservation plan (nccp/hcp), Natural	<ul> <li>☑ Ecological Significance</li> <li>☑ Scenic Opportunities</li> <li>☐ Historical/Archeological Significance</li> <li>☐ Recreational Opportunities</li> </ul>

	watch style program					communities coalition (NCC) Protect and document archeological items already known within the segment 1	visible or known of by local historians, residents or noted on EIRs. Protect these items and or remove them from the site then relocate to the history center at the main library to prevent flood damage, theft of or vandalism. Keep these items within the city's archives  O O O O O O O O O O O O O O O O O O O	Drange history center, brange county, AIA Drange County Society, Pacific Coast Archeological Society, OC Parks, American	Same listed in section 4  Some of these organizations offer support in excavation and preservation of known areas within the state of California when items are found	Private sector , donations , volunteer efforts	Areas are limited in access due to habitats and terrain as well as water levels depending on times of the year with rainfall. Needs to be done with assistance city of orange departments to protect effects on locations of artifacts as well limit public	Section 304 national historic preservation act, section 9a of the archaeological resources protection act, executive order 13007, section 6254.10 of the California state gov code. Reference site Ohp.parks.ca.gov	□ Ecological Significance □ Scenic Opportunities □ Historical/Archeological Significance □ Recreational Opportunities

				access during investigative processes Highlight Sully - Miller's contributions to the Mexican communities and their historical impacts to our city brining jobs for those needing work	Digital documentation of the company "Sully-Miller" as a company that provided jobs / careers for the Mexican Americans of El Modena and Cypress St barrio during times of segregation. The company help build locations like Disneyland and LAX	history center, orange barrio historical society, El Modena families and	Volunteer groups relating to Latino history.  Further research. Possibly Sully-Miller to assist since some employees work for them that are related to those who worked for the company many years ago. Also a chance to foster ties with the company due to its historical	NONE	Ownership of original site that broke ground in 1930s	<ul> <li>□ Ecological Significance</li> <li>□ Scenic Opportunities</li> <li>□ Historical/Archeological Significance</li> <li>□ Recreational Opportunities</li> </ul> who could not find it 1.8		company because of their relatives	significance.

Recommended Project	Recommended Priority	Project Description	Lead Department / Stakeholders	Needed Collaborations	Recommended Funding Strategy	Zoning Information and Limitations (if any)	Reference Documents	Other Matters of Interest
Biological survey and cultural resource assessment for the Hurwitz site.	2	A biological and cultural resource assessment should be done to develop a baseline of endangered species on site and needed habitat restoration at the 14-acre Hurwitz site. The surveys could run from March to June with the analysis and report in October.	City of Orange/OPA/East Orange Community	East Orange Community	Grand funding, OCTA-M2, Private funding	Resources	N/A	<ul> <li>☑ Ecological Significance</li> <li>☐ Scenic Opportunities</li> <li>☐ Historical/Archeological Significance</li> <li>☐ Recreational Opportunities</li> </ul>
Habitat restoration for the Hurwitz site.	2	A habitat restoration plan can be determined once the biological survey is completed. It is important to get expert guidance for this watershed	City of Orange/OPA/East Orange Community		Grant funding, OCTA-M2, Private Funding	Resources	N/A	<ul> <li>☑ Ecological Significance</li> <li>☐ Scenic Opportunities</li> <li>☐ Historical/Archeological Significance</li> <li>☐ Recreational Opportunities</li> </ul>

Recommended Project	Recommended Priority	Project Description	Lead Department / Stakeholders	Needed Collaborations	Recommended Funding Strategy	Zoning Information and Limitations (if any)	Reference Documents	Other Matters of Interest
Hoyt House 1.10	2	Historic preservation: Identify and acknowledge historic sites along the creek.	City of Orange	Unknown	Grant Funding	N/A		<ul><li>□ Ecological Significance</li><li>□ Scenic Opportunities</li><li>☑ Historical/Archeological Significance</li></ul>
								☐ Recreational Opportunities
Submerged dam at Santiago Oaks Regional Park  1.10	2	Historic preservation: Identify and acknowledge historic sites along the creek.	City of Orange	County of Orange	Grant Funding	N/A		<ul> <li>□ Ecological Significance</li> <li>□ Scenic Opportunities</li> <li>□ Historical/Archeological Significance</li> <li>□ Recreational Opportunities</li> </ul>

Vehicles that were dropped to help flood overflow  1.10	Historic preservation: Identify and acknowledge historic sites along the creek.	City of Orange	Possibly the County of Orange	Grant Funding	N/A	□ Ecological Significance □ Scenic Opportunities □ Historical/Archeological Significance □ Recreational Opportunities
Camp Jotham 2 Bixby  1.10	Historic preservation: Identify and acknowledge historic sites along the creek.	City of Orange	Boy Scouts of America	Grant Funding	N/A	□ Ecological Significance □ Scenic Opportunities □ Historical/Archeological Significance □ Recreational Opportunities
Old County Park 2 Road  1.10	Historic preservation: Identify and acknowledge historic sites along the creek.	City of Orange	Possibly County of Orange	Grant Funding	N/A	□ Ecological Significance □ Scenic Opportunities □ Historical/Archeological Significance □ Recreational Opportunities