6. DISCUSSION AND BACKGROUND

The City has retained the law firm of Woodruff, Spradlin & Smart, to provide legal services with respect to litigation defense in the matter of George and Kalliopi Metsovas, et al. v. City of Orange.

While the City Attorney's Office handles most litigation matters, the City does contract with outside counsel when the specialized expertise, complexity or burden on staff time requires such. This case involves multiple parties and allegations of inverse condemnation, nuisance, breach of contract and breach of implied covenant of good faith and fair dealing resulting from an intersection widening project. Litigation of this type is complex, paper intensive, and is extremely time consuming for our in-house legal staff, which is why outside counsel has been retained.

The First Amendment to the Agreement, increasing the not to exceed amount, is necessary to carry out an appropriate defense in this case.
