6. DISCUSSION AND BACKGROUND

While the City Attorney's Office handles most litigation matters in-house, the City does contract with outside counsel when the complexity of a case, or a significant burden to staff time requires additional staffing expertise. The litigation in this case involves multiple allegations, including a request for class action status, in State and Federal Court. This type of litigation is document and time sensitive and involves technical issues and complex remedies, which are time consuming and would over-burden in-house legal staff.

As such, the City has retained the law firm of Everett Dorey, LLP, to provide legal services with respect to litigation defense in the matter of Mary's Kitchen, et. al, v. City of Orange. Everett Dorey LLP is a full service litigation firm that provides specialized services to public entities, with an expertise in handling the issues raised in this case.

The First Amendment of the agreement, to increase the not to exceed amount to $130,000, is necessary to carry out further defense of the City in this case.
