

ORDINANCE NO. 04-26

AN ORDINANCE OF THE CITY COUNCIL OF THE CITY OF ORANGE ADDING CHAPTER 8.38 TO THE ORANGE MUNICIPAL CODE RELATING TO THE MAINTENANCE AND SECURITY STANDARDS FOR UNOCCUPIED OR ABANDONED PROPERTIES.

WHEREAS, California Constitution, Article XI, Section 7, authorizes cities to make and enforce within its limits all local, police, sanitary, and other ordinances, and regulations not in conflict with general laws; and

WHEREAS, California Government Code section 38771 provides that legislative bodies of cities may declare what constitutes a nuisance; and

WHEREAS, California Government Code section 38772 et seq. further provides that legislative bodies of cities may also provide for the summary abatement of any nuisance at the expense of the persons creating, causing, committing, or maintaining it, and by ordinance may make the expense of abatement of nuisances a lien against the property on which the nuisance is maintained and a personal obligation against the property owner; and

WHEREAS, California Health and Safety Code section 101450 authorizes the City Council to take measures necessary to preserve and protect public health, including the adoption of ordinances and regulations to address unsafe, unsecured, and nuisance conditions associated with unoccupied and abandoned properties; and

WHEREAS, the Legislature of the State of California, in adopting section 2929.3 of the California Civil Code (requiring owners of vacant residential property acquired at a foreclosure sale or by foreclosure under a mortgage or deed of trust to adequately maintain the property and to abate any violations threat) specifically provides that said section does not preempt any local ordinance; and

WHEREAS, Unoccupied or Abandoned Properties can be a major cause and source of blight in the City; and

WHEREAS, Unoccupied or Abandoned Properties that are not actively maintained or secured may pose a serious threat to public health and safety due to the secondary effects of criminal activity, vandalism, trespassing, graffiti, fire hazards, unsafe conditions, depressed surrounding property values, and reduced economic development; and

WHEREAS, property owners are responsible for preventing their property from becoming a nuisance to the community and from creating a financial burden on City resources due to repeated responses by code enforcement, police, and fire services; and

WHEREAS, the City Council finds that Unoccupied or Abandoned Properties may create conditions that threaten the public health, safety, and welfare; and further finds that it is in the best interests of the City and its residents to ensure that all properties within the City are maintained to reasonable standards through the adoption of a Maintenance and Security Standards for Unoccupied or Abandoned Properties Ordinance; and

WHEREAS, implementing the foregoing ordinance will assist the City in protecting the community from the negative impacts and conditions that occur as a result of vacancy, absentee ownership, and lack of compliance with City regulations and laws.

NOW, THEREFORE, THE CITY COUNCIL OF THE CITY OF ORANGE DOES HEREBY ORDAIN AS FOLLOWS:

SECTION I:

The Ordinance is not a “project” subject to the provisions of the California Environmental Quality Act (CEQA) per State CEQA Guidelines Section 15378 because it involves an organizational and administrative activity of the City of Orange that will not result in direct or indirect physical changes in the environment.

SECTION II:

A new Chapter 8.38 of Title 8 (“Health and Safety”) of the Orange Municipal Code (OMC) is hereby added to read as follows:

8.38.010 Purpose and Intent.

- A. The purpose of this chapter is to establish regulations and monitoring program for Unoccupied or Abandoned Properties to assist the City with code enforcement efforts to reduce blight in the City.

- B. By establishing maintenance and security standards, inspection and enforcement procedures, penalties, and cost recovery mechanisms, the City will reduce the adverse secondary effects associated with vacant, distressed, unoccupied, and abandoned properties.
- C. The Community Development Director is hereby authorized to administer and enforce the provisions of this chapter.

8.38.020 Definitions.

If a term or phrase is not defined in this chapter, or elsewhere in this Code, the most common dictionary definition is presumed to be correct unless the context clearly requires otherwise.

“Abandoned” or “Distressed” means any real property (Property) that is Vacant and meets any of the following conditions: (i) is under a current notice of default; (ii) is under a current notice of trustee’s sale; (iii) is pending a tax assessor’s lien sale; (iv) has been the subject of a foreclosure sale where the title was retained by the beneficiary of a deed of trust involved in the foreclosure; or (v) has been transferred under a deed in lieu of foreclosure.

“Business Activity” means the lawful, continuous operation of a mixed-use, commercial, or industrial use within a structure, building or on a property for its intended and permitted purpose, as evidenced by customary ongoing activities, including the presence of employees, contractors, or customers during normal or posted business hours, the active offering of goods or services for sale, the maintenance of valid business licenses and required permits, the operation of utilities at levels consistent with occupancy, and the maintenance of inventory, equipment, furnishings, or fixtures appropriate to the business. Business activity shall not include sporadic or incidental use; pop up events or activities, temporary or vending permits; the mere storage or display of furniture, equipment, furnishings, fixtures or merchandise without active operations; maintenance of a business license without on-site activity; administrative use lacking regular physical occupancy (unless such use constitutes the primary permitted use); or any activity undertaken solely to avoid classification as a Unoccupied or Abandoned Property.

“Evidence of Vacancy” means conditions existing on or around a Property including but not limited to overgrown and/or dead vegetation; accumulation of newspapers, circulars, flyers, and/or mail; past due utility notices and/or disconnected utilities; accumulation of trash, litter, junk, and/or other debris; the absence of window coverings such as curtains, blinds, and/or shutters; unsecured or broken doors or windows; the absence of commercial furnishings; statements by neighbors, passersby, delivery agents, and government employees or any other evidence that demonstrates that the Property is Vacant, Distressed, Unoccupied or Abandoned.

“Owner” includes any person or entity having legal title to, or who leases, rents, occupies or has charge, control, or possession of any real Property in the City, including all persons listed as Owners on the last equalized assessment roll of the Orange County Assessor’s Office. Owners include persons with power of attorney, executors of estates, trustees, heirs, or court-appointed administrators, conservators, guardians, receivers, and any beneficiary and trustee who holds a deed of trust on a Property in the City. For providing notice to an Owner under this Code, “Owner” includes the Owner’s agent, employee, property manager or other legal representative.

“Screening” means a professionally designed display made of film, vinyl, polymath, canvas, or heavy-duty paper or other material and that is placed on the inside of a window, window area and glass door of an Unoccupied or Abandoned Storefront which conceals the interior of the premises from any public or private view.

“Securing” means making the Property inaccessible to unauthorized person(s), including, but not limited to repair or installation of fences, walls, and other barriers; chaining or pad locking of gates, doors; the repair, replacement or boarding of doors, windows, and/or other openings.

“Storefront” means the ground-floor or second story exterior façade of any building, structure or tenant space on a mixed-use, commercial, or industrial property that is designed or intended to provide visual access to the interior and direct access for members of the public to engage in business activity, and that contains one or more display windows, glazed window areas, or glass doors visible from a public street, sidewalk, walkway, private parking area open to the public, or other publicly accessible right-of-way.

“Unoccupied” means any vacant property that is not lawfully inhabited, leased, rented, or actively used for business activity or other purposes consistent with its intended mixed-use, residential, commercial, or industrial zone.

“Vacant” or “Vacant Property” means any lot, tract, or parcel of land, or any and each building, structure, or improvement thereon, including but not limited to any storefront, individual unit, tenant space, or portion thereof, located within a mixed-use, residential, commercial, or industrial zone, that is not lawfully inhabited, leased, rented, or actively used for business activity or other intended purpose consistent with the Code, and that either (i) remains Unoccupied for more than sixty (60) consecutive calendar days, and/or (ii) exhibits objective Evidence of Vacancy, and/or (iii) is Abandoned or Distressed.

8.38.030 Applicability; Exceptions.

- A. Applicability. This chapter applies to all Unoccupied or Abandoned residential, commercial, industrial, and mixed-use properties, including undeveloped land and tenant spaces within multi-tenant buildings.
- B. Exceptions. This chapter does not apply as follows:
 - 1. Active Construction Activity. An Unoccupied or Abandoned Property with a valid, unexpired building permit where inspections occur at least once every three (3) months for construction activities (e.g., demolition, repair, alteration, rehabilitation, or tenant improvements), and the owner is diligently progressing toward completion.
 - 2. Pending Permits, Licenses or Approval. The owner or leaseholder has filed an application for, and is actively seeking to obtain authorization, permits, or licenses required by State, County, or local law permitting the lawful use and occupancy of the Unoccupied or Abandoned Property.

3. Actively Marketed Residential Properties. A vacant unit or entire dwelling including, but not limited to, a multi-family development, apartment, duplex, condominium, townhouse, single-family residence, ADU, JADU, or short-term rental in a residential zone that is actively and continuously offered for sale, lease, or rent, and otherwise complies with all applicable Federal, State, and OMC requirements, including this chapter.
- C. Notwithstanding this section, an Unoccupied or Abandoned Property is ineligible for exclusion if the owner, although promptly correcting violations within forty-eight (48) hours of notice by the Code Enforcement Division, receives more than two (2) written notices of violation within any sixty (60) calendar-day period.

8.38.040 Right of Inspection and Entry.

The Community Development Director, or any authorized City personnel, may enter and inspect any unoccupied, abandoned, or suspected vacant property at reasonable times for purposes of enforcing this chapter, with the verbal or written consent of the owner or person in control of the property. If entry is refused, the City may seek an administrative inspection warrant in accordance with applicable law. In cases of emergency, or where conditions pose an immediate threat to public health, safety, or welfare, the City may enter the Property without prior notice or warrant to the extent permitted by law. The City may also enter the Property to abate violations as authorized by law, this chapter, or other provisions of the Code.

8.38.050 Inspection, Classification, Monitoring and Response.

- A. Upon receipt of a complaint or through proactive enforcement efforts involving an Unoccupied or Abandoned Property, the City, including the Community Development Department, Fire Department, Police Department, and other designated City personnel, may conduct an inspection of the interior and/or exterior of the Property following reasonable notice or as otherwise authorized by law or this chapter. Reasonable notice shall consist of the City providing not less than three (3) calendar days' advance written notice of the inspection, specifying the date and time of the inspection. A visual exterior inspection of an Unoccupied or Abandoned Property may be conducted by City personnel without entering the Property and from a public right-of-way, adjacent private property with the consent of the owner or person in control of such property, or as otherwise permitted by law.
- B. Notice of Violations and Classification of Unoccupied or Abandoned Property. Following an inspection by Code Enforcement, the owner of an Unoccupied or Abandoned Property that does not qualify as a Level 1—Stable Property shall be either served, by mail, certified mail, personal service, and/or posting on the Property, with a written notice of violation. The notice shall specify the violations as contained in this chapter and provide a reasonable period to correct or otherwise remedy them. If the violations remain uncorrected after the compliance period, the Property shall be assigned a classification based on its overall condition and level of compliance, as follows:
 1. Level 1—Stable Property: An Unoccupied or Abandoned Property maintained in full compliance with the OMC and provisions contained in this chapter. Stable Properties shall not be subject to Monitoring and Response Fees, and the related Code Enforcement case shall be closed.

2. Level 2—At-Risk Property: In addition to any citations, notices and/or fees or costs of City enforcement efforts, including costs to abate a nuisance, Unoccupied or Abandoned Property that exhibits violations of the OMC and/or provisions contained in this chapter shall be subject to biweekly monitoring and response by City Code enforcement. At Risk Properties are subject to biweekly Monitoring and Response Fees.
 3. Level 3—Problematic Property: In addition to any citations, notices and/or fees or costs of City enforcement efforts, including costs to abate a nuisance, a Unoccupied or Abandoned Property that exhibits violations of the OMC and/or provisions contained in this chapter and is unsafe, dangerous, substandard, unlawful, hazardous, condemned, fire damaged buildings, structures, equipment, or property that are not safe and/or unfit for human occupancy pursuant to the OMC or State law, and/or poses immediate threat to the public health, safety, and welfare shall be subject to a weekly monitoring and response by City Code enforcement. Problematic Property is subject to weekly Monitoring and Response Fees.
- C. In addition to the provisions of this chapter, Level 2 and 3 properties are subject to all applicable City enforcement actions, including but not limited to, criminal, administrative, and civil citations, for violations of the OMC, State or Federal law, or for conditions constituting a public nuisance.
- D. Unsafe, dangerous, substandard, unlawful, hazardous, condemned, or fire damaged buildings, structures, equipment, or property that are not safe and/or unfit for human occupancy pursuant to the OMC or State law shall either be demolished or fully repaired by obtaining a valid building permit within ninety (90) days. The Community Development Director may grant continuation if documentation is provided to the satisfaction of the Director showing any delay is of no fault of the Owner and the Owner has made good faith efforts to demolish or fully repair within said ninety (90) days. Until demolition or repairs are completed, the Owner shall secure the building, structure, and property to prevent unauthorized access.
- E. If an Unoccupied or Abandoned Property moves from Stable to At Risk or from At Risk to Problematic, the Monitoring and Response Fees will be set to the higher classification. Likewise, if an Unoccupied or Abandoned Property moves to a lower classification, the fees will be the lower classification, if any. The Code Enforcement Division of the City will conduct a reassessment of the Unoccupied or Abandoned Property upon request of the Property Owner.
- F. An Unoccupied or Abandoned Property may be reclassified based on the following:
1. The Property Owner has made the required corrections to the Unoccupied or Abandoned Property to become fully compliant with the OMC and/or provisions contained in this chapter;

2. The Property Owner has had no new violations documented or observed for the past sixty (60) consecutive days by the Community Development Department; and
 3. The Property Owner requests a site inspection at least two (2) weeks prior to the due date of the current monitoring and response fee being billed.
- G. If the Unoccupied or Abandoned Property qualifies for a lower classification, then the corresponding Monitoring and Response Fees, if any, will be assessed.
- H. Monitoring and Response Fees as established by resolution of the City Council and those contained in the City's Master Fee Schedule shall be billed and paid to the City within thirty (30) calendar days of the billing notice to any applicable property owner of an Unoccupied or Abandoned Property. Monitoring and Response Fees shall fully recover the City's costs for Code Enforcement administration, equipment, supplies and personnel, as well as applicable hourly rates set forth in the City's Master Fee Schedule for personnel responses by Building and Safety, Fire, Police and/or any other designated City personnel enforcing the provisions of this chapter. These fees are not refundable, prorated, or rebated. The assessment of applicable Monitoring and Response Fees by Code Enforcement upon a property owner of an Unoccupied or Abandoned Property is final, unless appealed in accordance with this chapter.

8.38.060 General Maintenance and Security Standards for Unoccupied or Abandoned Properties.
